At time Joseph Boone,3d died he left but one child, Anna, wife of Jacob Kern, and eleven grandchildren; Anna had but two by then, her brother Abraham had four, leaving 5 others to be yet accounted for. I do know she had at least one sister. I have tried many & various sources hoping to locate the other children & grandchildren of Joseph,3d, but to no avail.

Jacob & Anna were cousins, having come down the line from Joseph, Sr.

President Lincoln came down the line from Mordecai's first wife whereas we came down from his second wife. Mordecai's son Abraham by 2d wife was born about 5 months after he died. Other children of Mordecai & Mary Robeson were: Mordecai, b.5/9/1730, d.1812, m.1755 to Mary Webb, dau. of John & Mary Boone(Webb); Thomas, b.1732, d.1775, m.Elizabeth Davis, dau. of Thos. & Mary. The Lincoln Natl. Foundation has the birth date of Abraham as 10/18/1736, so its a question which is correct.

Michael Kern & Mary (1st wife) settled in Pennsylvania near Reading, and Michael was buried at Amityville, Exeter County.

Jacob Kern of Amity, married July 11, 1826 by Rev. Pauli, to Anna Boone of Exeter. Her baptism recorded in St.Gabriel's Church, Jan. 1, 1830, at town then called Morlatton now Douglassville in vicinity of Birdsboro just west of Pottstown. In 1825 was Morlatton, in 1833 it was called Douglassville. Her two children were baptised then. Whether or not she was baptised then is a question in my mind, or hers only just recorded then. She was confirmed at Reading, Pa. 12/29/1844, L.C.Bucher, Pastor in the Evangelical Reformed Church Bible printed in 1826. The St.Gabriel's Church is Protestant Episcopal. Her father, Joseph Boone, 3d, was "thrown out" of the Friends Meeting for disorderly conduct.

Joseph Boone, 3d of Exeter Twp. died intestate and Letters of Administration were granted July 21, 1829 to son-in-law Jacob Kern with Jeremiah B. Kern as bondsman, Book 11, Page 7.

George Boone IV who m. Deborah Howell had son William Boone who m. Sarah Lincoln in 1748 (sister of the John who is direct ancestor of President Lincoln). Two other Lincolns, children of Mordecai, married Boones; and his granddaughter Mary m. Joseph 3d. Mary was oldest of many children:

Mary b.9/15/1761, d.1/19/1827, buried 1/21/1827
Martha 1/25/1763, buried 2/1/1849 (prob.d.1/20/1849)
Mordecai 1/--/1765 " 9/14/1822 & wife Julia buried 3/10/58
James 5/ 5/1767 of Birdsboro,Pa. d.1861, 93 yrs.7 mos,6 days
Anne 4/19/1769 (maybe this one died in infancy or maybe the 2d Anne (or Anna) is incorrect)
Rachel 3/24/1771, died 7/19/1775
Phoebe 1/22/1773 m. Mr. Lewis
Anna 10/19/1774, buried 2/25/1847 (prob. d.2/23)
Thomas 3/22/1777 m. Alice Dehaven & d.12/29/1863 and left numerous progeny.
John 10/21/1779 died 4/4/1864.

I notice on the date given for birth of Sarah 2/19/1691 sister of Geo.Boone IV, born 7/13/1690 there is only a difference of 7 months. It could perhaps be correct but is my own opinion someone in the past made a mistake on the year Sarah was born, considering several angles.

I notice records have it that Isaac Boone's first wife was a Mary and 2d wife was a Sarah. Then his daughter Mary who married Michael Kern -- when Michael died he left a wife Sarah who was no doubt his 2d wife since Mary was his first wife. Seems peculiar; however, Mary and Sarah were names much used in those days so it could all be. These certain records were taken from original Wills by geneologists.

Anna b.5/31/1799 was "almost" 30 years old when her father Jos.Boone,3d died 5/23/1829. Jos.Boone,3d, b.1756 was about 20 years old when his father Jos.Boone,Jr. died in 1776. Jos.Boone,Jr. b.abt. 1730 was abt. 46 yrs. old when his father Jos.Boone,Sr. died on 1/30/1776. Apparently both Jr. and Sr. died in the same year, 1776.

Mother's book of Daniel Boone states: "Before George Boone's family moved to this country they were Episcopalians but during their residence in Pennsylvania they permitted themselves to be called Quakers.

William D. Sharp & Sarah F. Porter, married 8/13/1852 by Wm. Land, Probate J.P. (I have no record that Eliza had a brother William so maybe this is not a relation). These marriage records were given to me by Seneca County Probate Court, Tiffin, Ohio, and they have no marriage records prior to 1841. Also, they have the date for Eliza & Jerome as 3/25/1860 but the date 3/24/1860 is recorded in the Bible so unquestionably 3/24/1860 is correct.

Jacob Boone Kern, b.9/11/1794, d.12/24/1860, age 66 yrs. 3 most. & 13 days married to Susanah -- 1st wife. She died 7/21/1825. Their children were:

On the Kern records, Tiffin, Ohio,, seems to have marriages of some of Jacob's children by his first wife: Isaac Kern & Lana Stelter, 11/22/1855 by J. Klaus, M.G.
" " & Margaret Bowman, 6/6/1863 by Joseph Honer, J.P. (This is evidently a second marriage).
Jacob B. Kern, Jr. & Catherine E. Cookery, 11/21/1848 by H.Shaull V.D.M.
Henry Kern & Mary E. Hershberger, 10/18/1853 by E.C.McCarty, J.P.
The first child in both marriages of Jacob Boone Kern was a girl.

This was given to me by a lady named Esther Kern in Allentown, Pa. who came down the line from Isaac Boone. Her father Mr. H.E.Kern was a grandson of Josiah Boone Kern b.3/26/1804 (brother of Jacob Boone Kern, b.9/11/1794).

NOTE: This first paragraph below is not correct. Daniel Boone did not have a brother named Isaac. Isaac Boone was a son of Joseph Boone,Sr. who was a brother to Squire Boone who was Daniel's father.

MICHAEL KERN, son of HENRY KERN was born May 4, 1757. He settled in Exeter Township, Berks County and married Mary Boone the only daughter of Isaac Boone the brother of Daniel Boone the famous hunter, Indian fighter and pioneer settler of Kentucky.

Michael's wife was a Quaker and her marriage was greatly opposed by her family because she had gone outside her cult for a husband. It also seems that Isaac Boone had fought for the crown of England and had been awarded a section of land consisting of five square miles for his services. Kern on the other hand fought against the crown during the Revolution. Kern had a brilliant record. He served four enlistments which dated from 1776 to 1781. He was in the battles of Germantown and Brandywine. In the latter engagement he was taken prisoner but escaped. And it is said that while jumping a fence in making his escape the rails were shot from under him. The British seeing him fall thought him dead. He remained motionless for a while playing 'possum as it were and then crawled under cover. When 87 years old he was pensioned. He died in Exeter February 11, 1850 and is buried at the church at Amityville.

On the various Lincoln ancestors I got this information:

Samuel Lincoln had Mordecai, Sr. and he had the Mordecai Lincoln II (great-great-grandfather of President Lincoln).

This Samuel arrived from England 6/20/1637. He arrived at Boston, Mass., baptised 8/24/1622. He married Martha Lewis. She died 4/10/1693.
This Samuel was youngest son of Edward & Bridget and was 18 yrs. old when he arrived in Boston.
He was born 1619 and died 5/26/1690.

Mordecai,Sr. was born at Hingham, Mass. 6/14/1657. He died 11/28/1727. He married Sarah Jones in Hull, Mass. 1685. She died before 1701. This Sarah was daughter of Abraham & Sarah Whitman Jones.

Edward was son of Richard Lincoln.
Richard died in 1620.

Actually, there are 3 lines of descent I am connected with on the Boone side apart from my connection with President Lincoln. In short, and jumping down the line, this is the situation:

  - Anna Boone

  - Jacob Boone Kern

LINCOLN GENEALOGY

In Whitney's biography of Lincoln there is an interesting reminiscence of Secretary Welles who states, "he has heard President Lincoln say more than once, that when he laid down his official life he would endeavor to trace out his genealogy and family history."

Mr. Waldo Lincoln, of Worcester, Massachusetts, must find real satisfaction in having accomplished for his kinsman, Abraham Lincoln, a task which the president anticipated but was prevented from pursuing. It is with the kind permission of the author that The History of the Lincoln Family has become available for this condensed genealogical table. Copies of the original work are still obtainable.

The Lincoln family came from Hingham, England, and settled in Hingham, Massachusetts. As early as 1736 land grants were made to three different Thomas Lincolns, who were known as Thomas the cooper, Thomas the miller, and Thomas the weaver. Two years later another Thomas Lincoln arrived in Hingham who was called Thomas the husbandman. It is from Samuel Lincoln, a brother of Thomas the weaver, that we trace the line of descent which embraces the family of Abraham Lincoln.

The earliest known male progenitor of the Lincoln family is designated by the letter a, and his sons and daughters as aa, ab, ac, ad, etc., in order of their birth respectively.

Anna & Jacob were my mother's grandparents.

I know there was at least one other child of Joseph & Mary because my mother has heard her grandmother Anna speak of having a sister. Now at time Joseph died, he had but one child then living, Anna, but had 11 grandchildren. Anna had 2 at that time, and with Abraham's 4 it still leaves 5 others to be accounted for.
